INDEX

TO

VOLUME LXXI.

'Anarchism, Philosophy of,' Seymour's, 90.
Apocrypha, 1; origin of Apocryphal books, 3; Council of Trent and the Canon, 5; recent editions, 7; religious tone of Apocrypha, 9; light cast upon New Testament, 11; classification of books, 13; 1 and 2 Esdras and Tobit, 15; books of Maccabees, 17; Ecclesiasticus, 19; chief value of Apocryphal books, 21.
'Apocrypha,' Speaker's Commentary, 1.
'Art and Æsthetics in France,' 192, 381.
'Aspern Papers,' James', 382.

'Back Streets and London Slums,' Hastings', 391.
'Bacon,' Church's, 188.
'Bacon, his Life and Philosophy,' Nichol's, 188.
'Baptism, Manual of Christian,' Beet's, 358.
'Beatitudes,' Glover's, 360.
'Bible Animals,' Hart's, 391.
'Bibles, Old,' Dore's, 392.
'Biblical Illustrator: St. Mark,' Exell's, 357.
'Biography, Dictionary of National,' vol. xiv., 183.
'Blackie's Children's Books,' 383.
'Borrow's Works,' 388.
'Boston Monday Lectures,' Cook's, 180.
'Butler's Sermons on Human Nature,' Kilpatrick's, 176.

'Canada, Constitutional History of,' Bourinot's, 376.
'Century Magazine,' July–September, 203; October–December, 399.
'Christian Economics, Need of System of,' Stead's, 240.
'Christianity according to Christ,' Gibson's, 353.
'Christianity in Daily Conduct of Life,' 178.
'Christmas Posy,' Molesworth's, 383.
'Church History,' vol. i., Kurtz's, 374.
'Church History,' Schaff's, 375.
Churches and the Masses, 240; altered social conditions of the age, 241; reconstruction of society, 243; Christian work among the working classes, 245; notes of caution, 247; a Christian creed of social duty, 249; social economy and Christian ethics, 251.
Clifford, Dr.; Presidential Address, 240.
'Congregationalism in Yorkshire, Miall's, 205.
'Congress, Church, 1888, Report,' 240.
'Congreve, Life of William,' Gosse's, 369.
'Conscience, Christian,' Davison's, 287.
'Consecrated Culture,' Gregory's, 374.
'Cornhill Magazine' for 1888, 392.
'Countess Eve,' Shorthouse's, 382.
'Criticism, Essays in,' Arnold's, 377.
'Cromwell, Oliver,' Harrison's, 186.
Cruising and Dredging, 46; Poole Harbour, 47; the Needles, 49; Totland Bay, 51; Solent—sailing, 53; holiday policy for young men, 55; in Southampton Water, 57; zoophytes, 59; polyzoa, 61; practical naturalists, 63; Lymington river, 65.

Davison's Fernley Lecture, 287; doctrine and ethics, 289; conscience and its development, 291; conscience and Darwinism, 293; natural conscience and revelation, 295.
'Dictionary, New English,' part iv. spec. 1, 2, Murray's, 198.
'Dissent, Rise of Old, exemplified in life of O. Heywood,' Hunter's, 205.

'Economic Interpretation of History,' Thorold Rogers', 366.
'Evangelistic Work in Principle and Practice,' Pierson's, 357.
Expositor, vol. vii., 183; vol. viii., 358.

Forster, W. E., 141; appearance, manners, character, 143; early manhood,

145; parents and early life, 147; early difficulties and uncertainties, 149; relations with his uncle, Fowell Buxton, 151; removal to North: settlement in Bradford, 153; religious views, 155; prepared for public life, 157; early political opinions, 159; comes under influence of Dr. Arnold's writings, 161; marries Miss Jane Arnold, 163; enters Parliament, 165; as politician and Minister of State, 187; last illness, 169; death, 171.
'Forster, W. E., Life of,' Reid's, 141.
'Fraternity: a Romance,' 191.

'Galatians,' Findlay's, 351.
'Genesis, New Commentary on, Delitzsch's, 359.
'God, Self-Revelation of,' Harris', 67.
'Graham, Professor,' Taylor's, 374.
'Grail, Legend of the Holy,' Nutt's, 378.
'Green, Works of T. H.,' Nettleship's, 360.

'Harper's Magazine,' July–September, 204; October–December, 399.
'Heligoland and the Islands of the North Sea,' Black's, 387.
'Henry the Second,' Mrs. Green's, 185.
Heywood, Oliver, 205; Geneva of Lancashire, 207; R. Heywood and Alice Critchlaw, 209; Halifax and Puritanism, 211; ordination and parish, 213; Presbyterianism and the Commonwealth, 215; the Restoration and its consequences, 217; a persecuted evangelist, 219; household straits and severer persecution, 221; excommunicated and imprisoned, 223.
'Heywood, Life of Oliver,' Fawcett's, 205.
'Heywood, Memoirs of Oliver,' Slate's, 205.
Hume's 'Treatise of Human Nature,' Selby-Bigge's, 365.

'Industry, Southern, in Ireland,' 106.
'Inspiration of Old Testament,' Cave's, 349.
'Ireland, Industrial,' Dennis', 106.
'Ireland: Tour in 1776–8,' Young's, 106.
'Irish Industries, English Interference with,' Macneill's, 106.
Irish Manufactures, 106; Irish manufactures not like Irish snakes, 107; Irish goods: why unfashionable in Ireland, 109; use of societies, 111; Belleek pottery, 113; improvement since 1882, 115; Arthur Young's verdict, 117; evils of over-emigration, 119; advertising needed, 121.
'Irish Pictures, drawn with Pen and Pencil,' Lovett's, 386.
'Isaiah: His Life and Times,' Driver's, 182.

Jefferies, Richard, 225; mournful distinction of his story, 227; his father and his home, 229; his early struggles, 231; marriage and literary work, 233; as a writer and at his best, 235; illness and suffering of later years, 237; the end, 239.
'Jefferies, Richard, Eulogy of,' Besant's, 225.
'Jesus Christ the Divine Man,' Vallings', 360.

'Ken, Life of Bishop,' Plumptre's, 367.

'Lancashire: its Puritanism and Nonconformity,' Halley's, 205.
'Least of all Lands,' Miller's, 391.
'Legislation, History of Private Bill,' Clifford's, 123.
'Leisure Hour' volume for 1888, 393.
Local Government, 123; new measure based on old principles, 125; existing varieties and complications, 127; chaos that has been, 129; two groups of authorities, 131; Anglo-Saxon unit—the Norman changes, 133; conditions of boroughs before 1835, 135; three events in county government, 137; provisions of the new Act, 139.
'Local Government Act, 1888,' 123.
'Local Government and Taxation,' Rathbone's, 123.
'Local Government Bill, Handbook to, Glen's, 123.
Lotze's 'Logic,' Bosanquet's, 364.
'Louisa of Prussia and other Sketches, Kelly's, 372.

'Man, Whence comes,' Bell's, 179.
'Maw, Elizabeth,' Ingham's, 189.
'Men, Concerning, and other Papers,' Mrs. Craik's, 377.
'Methodism in Ireland,' vol. iii., Crookshank's, 190.
'Milton,' Johnson's, edited by Frith, 188.
'Miracles, Christian, and Conclusions of Science,' Thomson's, 176.
'Mission unter den Heiden, Geschichte der Christlichen,' Kalkar's, 313.
'Morality, New Testament,' Matheson's, 352.
'More Excellent Way,' Thornley Smith's, 176.

'Mortlake, Independents of,' Anderson's, 376.

'New Princeton Review,' September–November, 396.
'Nicholas, St.,' July–September, 204; October–December, 400.
'Nuova Antologia,' October, 395.

'Olympia,' Irish Exhibition Journal, 106.
Osborne, Dorothy, 271; Macaulay judges Temple unfairly, 273; Dorothy and Henry Cromwell, 275; husbands that will not suit Dorothy, 277; her sharp sayings, 279; cannot understand Lady Newcastle, 281; literature of her day, 283; to Epsom for the "spleen," 285.
'Osborne, Dorothy, Letters of,' Parry's, 271.
'Our Day,' May–June, 202–3; September–November, 396.

'Parish: Powers and Obligations of,' Smith's, 123.
'Paul, Hours with St., and 1 Corinthians,' Scott's, 354.
'Peter, First Epistle of,' Johnstone's, 355.
'Plato's Phædrus, Lysis, Protagoras,' Wright's, 364.
'Plato's Republic,' Jowett's, 363.
'Poems of Ten Years,' Knight's, 385.
'Political Economy: Principles of,' Sidgwick's, 194.
'Programme of Life,' Watkinson's, 181.
'Psalms, Morning,' 182.
'Punshon, Life of,' Macdonald's, 189.

'Reverberator,' James', 190.
'Review, Methodist,' November, 398.
'Revue Chrétienne,' June–August, 200–2; September–December, 395.
'Revue, La Nouvelle,' August 1, 199–200.
'Revue des Deux Mondes,' August 1, 199.
Richmond Palace and its Royal Residents, 22; Richmond and the Henries, 23; Richmond under the Plantagenets, 25; Richard II. and Henry V., 27; royal festivities and fire of 1498, 29; Elizabeth of York and Henry VII., 31; Katharine of Arragon, 33; merry-makings under Henry VIII., 35; consorts of Henry VIII., 37; Anne Boleyn and Anne of Cleves, 39; Mary and Elizabeth at the Palace, 41; Elizabeth's old age and death, 43; partial destruction of Richmond Palace, 45.
Roman Catholic Missions, 313; different groups of missions, 315; their pioneers, 317; Las Casas, 319; Francis Xavier, 321; "accommodations" in India and China, 323; persecutions in Asia, difficulties in Africa, 325; Eastern Archipelago and Australia, 327.
'Romans, Ninth Chapter of,' Morrison's, 354.
'Rundschau, Deutsche,' July, 200; October, 394.
'Russian Peasantry,' Stepniak's, 192.

'Samuel and Saul,' Deane's, 182.
'Science, Modern: in Bible Lands,' Dawson's, 198.
'Scientific Religion,' Oliphant's, 180.
'Scribner,' July–September, 204; October–December, 400.
'Scriptural Church Principles and Methodist Polity and History,' Gregory's, 174.
Self-Revelation of God, 67; conclusion reached by author, 69; religion in man, 71; man's knowledge of God, 73; man's relation to Nature and the supernatural, 75; being and absolute being, 77; theism and evolution, 79; Bible and revelation, 81; progressive character of Divine Revelation, 83; relation of miracles to Nature and the supernatural, 85; epochal movements and miracles, 87; answer to Agnosticism, 89.
'Sermon, Bible: 1 Kings to Psalm 76,'
'Sharpe, Letters of C. Kirkpatrick,' Allardyce's, 370.
'Silver Cord,' Dawe's, 385.
'Smiley, Life and Letters of,' Smiley's, 373.
'Social Demokratie, Philosophie in der,' Huber's, 90.
'Socialism, Religion of,' Bax's, 90.
'Socialisme, Philosophie du,' Deville's, 90.
Socialist Philosophy, 90; materialistic ideal of modern Socialism, 91; economic materialism, 93; collective will of humanity is to correct Nature, 95; "crash of doom," 97; great world deliverance, 99; final form of morality, 101; political philosophy of Socialism, 103; Atheistic humanism, 105.
'Son of Man in Relation to the Race,' 356.
'Spencer,' Church's, 187.
'Spirit of Christ,' Murray's, 357.
Stratford-Canning, Lord, 296; father's family and early days, 297; policy and diplomacy eighty years ago, 299; first appointment at Constantinople, 301; plenipotentiary at twenty-three, 303; diplomatic successes and return home in 1812, 305; failure in Parliament—returns to diplomacy, 307; Talleyrand—Vienna Congress—later life, 309; Great Elchi at Constantinople, 311; great career and final return to England, 313.

'Sunday at Home' volume for 1888, 393.

'Taylor, Correspondence of Henry,' Dowden's, 371.

'Temple, Memoirs of Sir W.,' Courtenay's, 271.

Theologischer Jahresbericht, Lipsius', 172.

'Toleration Act of 1689,' Schaff's, 375.

Trench, Archbishop, 253; at Cambridge 255; melancholy, 257; General Torrijos, 259; Spanish adventure, 261; Sterling on marriage, 263; his poetry and prose, 265; promotion, 267; fragments of conversation, 269.

'Trench, Archbishop: Letters and Memorials,' 253.

Tulloch, Principal, D.D., 329; enters the ministry, 331; beginnings of literary work, 333; Mr. Spurgeon, 335; "blackness of darkness," 337; visit to America, 339; elected Moderator, 341; Church and State, 343; influence on theology, 345; the end, 347.

'Tulloch, Principal, D.D., Life of,' Oliphant's, 329.

'Unsere Zeit,' July, 200.

'Value, Standard of,' Jordan's, 197.

Wesleyan Conference Publications, 389.

Wesleyan Sunday School Union Publications, 390.

'Women Friends of Jesus,' McCook's, 353.

PRINTED BY BALLANTYNE, HANSON AND CO.
LONDON AND EDINBURGH